

RedundancyInfoLink.com

Guide to getting the most out of this website

Homepage

3

Explore your options

⇒ Now that you have a full understanding of your financial situation you can start preparing for what you'll do next. Use this section to get useful info on:

- ⇒ Finding a new job
- ⇒ Career/ occupation change
- ⇒ Further education/ training options
- ⇒ Transitioning to retirement
- ⇒ Starting a small business

2

Get your finances in order

⇒ Use the information in this tab to decide what to do with your redundancy payout, budget for the money you'll need and work out how long your payout will last you

⇒ You can now use this information look at your options post-redundancy in step 3...

4

Set yourself up to deal successfully with change

⇒ Whether you are feeling stressed or coping well with your new circumstances, it pays to know where to go if things get tough. Visit this page for useful tips and links.

Start here

1

⇒ Click on the first tab on the website and download the Redundancy Checklist from this page.

⇒ Print the checklist and use it to work out what information you need next.

For further assistance with using this site or for other enquiries please contact i-Step Project Manager Skye d'Avoine at NORTH Link on 9479 5695.